

2018 Larry Cordaro Basketball Camps

Youth Camps

This will be the fifth consecutive summer that basketball camps have been held on the campus of LSU. The camps will take place inside the team's gym, "The Fort" where the team has yet to lose a game in three seasons.

Shortly after arriving at LSU in 2014, head coach Larry Cordaro began the LSU summer camp program. It has been a success, with a growing number of camp participants each year. This summer promises to be packed with something for boys and girls of all age groups. The camps focus on teaching players the basic fundamentals of basketball as well as shooting and ball handling skills. The camps are run by Coach Cordaro and the assistant coaches as well as student-athletes from the four-time defending Conference Champion LSU Generals Basketball team. The coaches and players are passionate about the sport of basketball and want to pass that enthusiasm and knowledge to all prospective players in a fun, safe, and educational environment. Camps will be offered in May, June, July and August.

Cordaro
Basketball Camp

Camp Director

Larry Cordaro is entering his fifth season as head coach of the LSU Men's Basketball program. In the Generals four seasons, LSU has a 115-17 record in route to winning conference regular season and tournament championships. Cordaro's coaching has been rewarded with several accolades, led by being named Don Meyer NAIA National Coach of the Year, HoopDirt NAIA National Coach of the Year and Basketball Times Coach of the Year. He also has been named the Red River Conference Coach of the Year and Louisiana Association of Basketball Coaches small college coach of the year on several occasions. Many of his players have been selected as All-Conference performers. Cordaro's teams have been #1 in the country for several weeks and they have also reached the Sweet 16, Fab 4, and the National Championship game in Kansas City. The Generals have constantly been ranked in the national poll and LSU once had a 48 game home court winning streak. Come be a part of the winning culture Cordaro has created at The Fort.
