Class Info

We always have professional photos and videos taken of our students, actors, and performances for archival purposes and publicity. If you approve of you or your child being photographed and videotaped for publicity and archival purposes, please initial here: _____.

Please list the people who have permission to pick up your child:

- Please prepare to pay your camp balance (if you have not previously) at the beginning of the first day of camp. Cash, Check, or Credit can be used. Class cost increases by $50 if you have not registered by the first day of class.
- Students should come to class wearing comfortable clothing. Acting games can be very physical, so be sure your student is dressed appropriately.
- All classes and camps are held at Coughlin-Saunders Performing Arts Center or 1906 Gus Kaplan Drive.
- Snacks and drinks are provided every day during a designated break time. If your camper has specific dietary needs, please let us know and have him/her bring snacks. We can store them in our refrigerator.
- Petite Camp will have a performance at the end at the Westside Library Friday at noon.
- Showstoppers and Triple Threat Camps have a performance at the end, everyone is welcome to attend and the performance will be held at Coughlin-Saunders for a ticket price of $5.00.
- Students will be required to provide costume pieces from home including but not limited to pants or a skirt, shoes, shirt, and socks or tights. These will be items you already own.
- Students may be asked to bring home a yard sign to put up in order to help us advertise our next production.
