

Our Lady of Prompt Succor School

admits students of any race, color, national or ethnic origin or religious preference. OLPS offers a diverse and challenging curriculum. All course offerings meet or exceed state accreditation requirements.

Our Lady of Prompt Succor School is located in the Garden District of Alexandria and serves students in Pre-School (age 3) through sixth grade from Rapides, Avoyelles, Allen and Grant Parishes.

We endeavor to adhere strictly to the Catholic Christian philosophy of education and to provide an environment in which excellence can prevail. Our purpose is to serve our students and to help them grow in their faith and morality. We are open to students of all faiths, and we respect their beliefs.

Our Mission

Our Lady of Prompt Succor School's mission is to develop Disciples of Christ and to foster academic excellence in a safe and respectful environment.

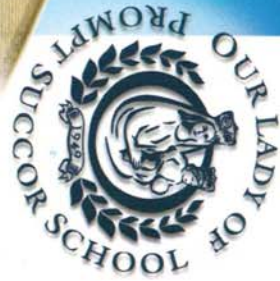

Our Philosophy

Our Lady of Prompt Succor is a living Christian community where each child is seen as a unique human person, deserving of acceptance, respect, dignity, and freedom. The school strives to provide an education that promotes the spiritual, intellectual, social, physical, and cultural growth and development of each child, so that he may one day take his place successfully in society and live a good Christian life.

*We enter to learn...
We leave to achieve!*

*Every child
is a Word
of God,
and God says
nothing
but infinitely
beautiful things.*
